IMPORTANT NOTES:

1) TAX CONSEQUENCES OF HEALTH BENEFITS FOR DOMESTIC PARTNERS

You should be aware that, under IRS rulings, if your domestic partner is not a 'dependent', within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code, the amount paid by an employer attributable to coverage of a domestic partner is treated as part of the participant's gross income for Federal tax purposes. Consequently, unless you have indicated and provided proof to the Health Benefits Program (e.g. a copy of a recent tax return) that your domestic partner is your dependent; the value of this benefit must be included as income in your Federal tax return for the applicable year. State and local tax treatment of the amount in question will vary among jurisdictions. You should consult the applicable laws and/or a tax professional to ascertain how the amount should be treated in your case.

This is to certify that I wish to designate the above named Domestic Partner as a beneficiary of the PSC-CUNY Welfare Fund Program. I understand that the value of these benefits will be a taxable income to me unless the designated beneficiary qualifies as my dependent under the Internal Revenue Code. The designation will remain in force until revoked by me.
